By:
JAMES E. KELLER
Assistant United States Attorney

Department of State

To all whom these Presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, The Government of Canada has made requisition in conformity with the provisions of existing treaty stipulations between the United States of America and Canada for the mutual delivery of criminals, fugitives from justice in certain cases, for the delivery up of Wilbur James Ventling, also known as John James Stewart, Denis Arkman, Wilburn Hamilton, Wilbur James Schwope, who is wanted to stand trial for one count of rape and one count of causing bodily harm with intent, in violation of sections 144 and 228, respectively, of the Criminal Code of Canada, crimes committed within the jurisdiction of Canada.

And Whereas, The said Wilbur James Ventling has been found within the jurisdiction of the United States and has by proper authority and due form of law, been brought before United States Magistrate Judge Robert A. McQuaid, Jr. of the United States District Court for the District of Nevada for examination upon the charges set forth above.

And Whereas, The said United States Magistrate Judge Robert A. McQuaid, Jr. has found and adjudged that the evidence produced against the said Wilbur James Ventling is sufficient in law to justify his commitment upon the said charges, and has, therefore, ordered that the said Wilbur James Ventling be committed pursuant to the provisions of said treaty stipulations.

Now Therefore, Pursuant to the provisions of Section 3184, Title 18, United States Code, These Presents are to require the United States Marshal for the District of Nevada, or any other public officer or person having charge or custody of the aforesaid Wilbur James Ventling, to surrender and deliver him up to such person or persons as may be duly authorized by the Government of Canada, to be tried for the crimes of which he is so accused.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the Seal of the Department of State to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, this 5th day of February, A.D. 2008, and of the Independence of the United States of America the 232nd.
